Making the changes that matter. Development today is not just about training courses and peer feedback, it involves the growth of our whole selves as we mature as people, as learners and as performers.

Being able to help people to grow and learn about themselves is the crucial balance of helping people to remain engaged today and retain talent for tomorrow.

Corporate Coaching is a packaged service designed to enhance the engagement, learning and development of employees through a sponsor from within your business that directly involves the coachee and the coaches' Sponsor/Leader.

It targets growth and development needs which means the coaching agenda can be tailored from person to person.

This allows the sponsor and the coachee to let the coaching "go where it needs to" in order to bring the desired development.

Robust, methodical and practical the coaching process process includes;

- 3 way meetings (pre and post) with sponsor/leader, coach and coachee,
- Written coaching agreement
- 6 one on one coaching sessions 90 minutes each
- Unlimited phone and email access to the PRIMEXL coach
- Access to reading references and online resources
- Written closure report
