Expand your mind, and your network.

You can never know it all. Effective leadership results from constantly seeking out new perspectives and assimilating them into your leadership style. In a complex and changing business environment, the value of dialogue with a network of your peers is paramount.

Leading Wisdom is a forum for leaders interested in expanding their thinking around contemporary leadership issues, and enabling authentic leadership to emerge and be sustained in their organisation. Run as a dialogue, in a small-group format, it is designed for you to share and reflect on your own experiences, learn from others and leave the wiser!

“A real benefit for me about these sessions is just making the time for me to think about my development, which often doesn't happen during a busy day.”

Recent participant

Leading Wisdom can be:

- Attended by a small group of leaders from across your organisation and functions.
- Run monthly for two and a half hours (typically from 8am to 10:30am), covering approximately 8 to 12 topics.
- Run as a facilitated dialogue on a topic of interest, and is designed to have participants hear others perspectives and share their own.
- Supported by relevant pre-reading, on-line resources and in-house sponsors.
- Held at your locations making it convenient and easy to get back to work after the session.
